Free .- About 8 o'clock last evening a fire alarm was sounded, and the fire companies and people rushed to the scene. The fire was in a very remote locality, not far from the old slaughter house. The house, we understand, belonged to a colored man named Bayley, and the loss is supposed to be $150 or $200. It was beyond the reach of water, so that the Hose Company could not be made available. The Hooks, however, tore down the burning house, and prevented the spreading of the flames. The fire was the result of accident.

THIRVING.—The light fingered gentry are beginning to ply their art in this place with considerable energy. Day before yesterday two men made a raid upon Ashim & Bro.'s store, and between the two got away with three pair of pants. One of them was arrested and two pair of pants recovered. The other made good his escape with his ill-gotten We hear of other instances of pilfering, but we would advise thieves that they are closely watched, and if caught will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

JUSTICE'S COURT.-Yesterday's proceedings in Justice Stoutenburgh's Court were mostly of a criminal nature. Wm. King, for stealing two pair of pants from Ashim & Bro.'s store, pleaded guilty to the charge of petit larceny, and was sentenced to pay $66 to cover fine and costs, or in default remain in jail 33 days. He chose the latter alternative. The case of Jose was continued until to-day. The second attempt at a trial in the case of the State vs. Lichtenstein will be made at some time not yet agreed upon.

IMPROVEMENTS .- It is the general remark of strangers as well as residents that Pioche is improving more rapidly than any town they have visited on the Pacific Coast. Wbile many frame buildings are being erected at points remote from the business centre and intended for private residences, there are other ctures in course of early completion which are more extensive, and many of them of stone or brick, and are now looming up on our principal thorough-

THE DANCE.-The party at Mrs. Grambs' on Thanksgiving evening was a very pleasant affair, although the attendance was not large. The ladies looked charming and made a good appearance on the floor. The gentlemen could not be otherwise than happy with such surroundings. The supper was elegant, and the music-Mr. Mitchell, violin; Mr. Nagle, piano, and Mr. Pierce, cornet— was equal to any we ever heard.

FOR THE CAPITAL .- Mr. Thomas Wallace, one of the Assemblymen from this county, leaves by this morning's stage for San Francisco, intending to spend a few weeks in California and reach Car-son by about the 1st of January. Mr. Wallace bears with him the best wishes of numerous friends for a pleasant trip to California and a career of usefulness in the Legislature of Nevada.

On the War Path .- Our sanctum was invaded last evening by R. A. Fulks and Aleck Thompson, both armed to the teeth. A satisfactory explanation having been rendered, the two gentlemen left their compliments on our table. For further particulars call at Fulks & Mc-Alpin's Saloon, Meadow Valley street. The house will be re-opened this even-

TO BE CEMENTED. The walls on the Court House are to be cemented so as to $500 Reward. -The above reward will prevent damage to the plastering which paid to anybody who will furnish as would surely ensue without such prefor 25 cents. Always on hand, a large missioners in providing for this work is very proper. The contract has been awarded to P. M. O'Connor, and we are sure the work will be done satisfactorily

Col. U. E. Allen, short term Senator from White Pine county, arrived here yesterday from Hamilton by private conveyance. Col. Allen is an old pioneer of Lincoln county, having been the first County Recorder. The people here will find in Col. Allen a true friend to their interests in the Legislature.

"OBSERVER."-We have received an anonymous communication bearing the above signature. Evidently the writer has soured on the proposition, and seeks to be facetious through our columns, and at the public expense. But we can't see it. We are half inclined to believe the communication is not original.

DEATH AND BURIAL .- On Wednesday night last M. M. Montgomery, late of Visilia, Cal., died in Pioche of pneumonia, after a brief illness. He was buried yesterday by the Brethren of St. John Lodge and others. The father of the deceased is a resident of Tulare county, THANKSCIVING DAY did not pass in Pioche wholly unobserved. Several business houses closed up, good dinners were enjoyed in the principal restaurants in town, religious services in the two churches, and there were many inter-changes of pleasant social relations.

Morr, Fish & Co., have closed business in Hamilton and removed their extensive stock of hardware to this city. Mr. Fish came over a few days ago, and is now superintending the filling up of their establishment on Meadow Valley

In Town.-Mr. Dan Robbins, division agent for Gilmer & Salisbury's stage line, arrived on Thursday morning. He reports the roads in good condition, with great numbers of teams en route for Pioche with merchandise.

MAHONEY & O'Toole are now opening splendid stock of clothing, gent's furnishing goods, boots and shoes, and are now prepared to see thir friends. Their place of business is adjoining Mr. Cronan's grocery store.

n 30-tf Cronan's grocery store.

D. R. DICKINSON, connected with the drug store of G. R. Alexander, has reached Pioche. The new store will be opened in a few days, with a stock of superior drugs and medicines.

New Goods are being daily received at the Posoffice Variety Store. n30

FIRE MATTERS .- A meeting of members of both the Hook and Ladder and the Hose Company was held at the school house on Thursday. After passing upon a few laws, but without effecting a thorough organization, the meeting broke up. It is now supposed that the two companies will act independently of each other, as heretofore, and the Hose Company will therefore call upon the people for pecuniary aid in keeping their apparatus in proper order. Secu-rity against fire must be had at any price, and we hope therefore that liberal con-tributions will be made.

WM. J. RYAN, late of the firm of Steinbach & Ryan, hairdressars, takes, leave of Pioche this morning, for his old home in the East. He leaves behind a good reputation and bears with him the sin-cere wishes of friends for long life and general prosperity.

CLUTE & Young's stock consists in part of groceries, provisions, mining tools, hardware, stoves, tin ware, iron, steel, crockery, rubber belting and min-ing boots, at lowest rates for cash. Give them a call and save money. n30

To ARRIVE To-DAY .- The following passengers left Hamilton yesterday for Pioche, who will arrive on to-day's stage: J. Meyers, J. Lynch, L. Lee, R. Furguson, S. L. Blackwell, Wm. Taylor, Jimmy Harrington.

O'NEIL & ARMSTRONG.—In addition to their supply of beef, mutton, etc., have gone into the making of fresh lard and pork sausage. Give them a call and see for yourselves.

JOHN C. LYNCH, corner of Main and Lacour streets, has just completed the painting and papering of his saloon. It now presents a very handsome appear-ABCO

Mong. KAVANAUGH, local reporter of the Schell Creek Prospect, is on a visit to Pioche. We hope he will find his stay in our town pleasant and agreeable.

RAPPLE. - A raffle for a fine gold watch and chain, valued at $250, will come off at the Mint Exchange on Sunday (tomorrow) evening.

PAPERS.-We are indebted to Chas. Wiederhold for literary papers and pic-torials. His store is well stocked with all the late papers. DISTINGUISHED ARRIVALS .- Ex-Governor Blasdel arrived by yesterday's stage from Hamilton. Ex-Lieut-Gov. Crossman is also in town. The purest and freshest drugs and medicines are to be had at Burrage's
